

Sabrina McCrear

(862) 763.3772 | sabrinamccrear@gmail.com | LinkedIn | Digital Portfolio

SUMMARY

---

I am a health journalist and communications professional with experience in health reporting, editorial leadership, and digital strategy. I am skilled in writing, editing, and content creation for both print and digital platforms, with a focus on health, science, and advocacy. My career goal is to advance health journalism and advocacy through impactful storytelling, research, and public engagement.

EDUCATION

---

Howard University, Washington, D.C. (Bachelor of Arts - May 2025)

Major: Media, Journalism, and Film Communications; Print & Digital Media Concentration

Minor: Biology

GPA: 3.6

Relevant Coursework:

Public Affairs Reporting, Health and Science Writing, Adv. Multimedia Storytelling, Interactive Editing, Digital Design

PUBLISHED WORKS

---

AJMC (06/2025 – Present)

- Social Disparities Increase Breast Cancer Mortality for Black Women
- Affirmative Action Repeal Decreases Minority Acceptance and Matriculation in Medical Schools
- Historically Redlined Areas Face Inequities in Rapid EMS Care Access

U.S. News and World Report (06/2024 – 12/2024)

- What to Know When Seeking Abortion Care: Costs, Access and How it Works
- In North Carolina, Exemplary Maternal Care Benefits Black Patients

WORK EXPERIENCE

---

06/2025 – Present

Associate Editor — The American Journal of Managed Care Cranbury, NJ

- Write daily news and feature articles on various disease states.
- Lead efforts to revitalize social media strategy and strengthen digital presence.

05/2025 – 06/2025

Content Marketing Intern — Cooper Surgical Trumbull, CT

- Developed operational support tools to enhance team efficiency and streamline workflows.
- Created internal content and supported social media and content strategy research.

06/2024 – 12/2024

Communications/Health Editorial Intern — U.S. News & World Report New York, NY

- Support hospital participation in “Best Hospitals for Maternity Care” survey by conducting direct outreach to hospital representatives.
- Write, edit and report health advocacy stories using U.S. News & World Report’s data.

AWARDS/ACTIVITIES

---

Fellow - MIT Knight Science Journalism (06/2024 – 06/2025)

- Research and publish articles about science, health, and environmental issues.
- Pitch and write stories to health science publications with the aid of senior health science journalists.

HU Campus Mag. 101 Magazine – Editor in Chief (Fall 2024 – Spring 2025)

- Manage and run an efficient newsroom; producing stories that reflect our campus audience’s interests.
- Coordinate editorial and design efforts digital fall and spring issues of the magazine.

Howard University National Association of Black Journalists (2022 – 2025)

Howard University Achievers Scholarship Recipient (2021 – 2025)

SKILLS

---

Canva, Adobe Premiere Pro, Adobe Audition, Social Media Curator (Instagram, TikTok), Copywriting, Hard-News Reporting, Magazine Writing, Investigative Journalism, Fact-Checking, SEO